

Assistant Legal Counsel

Developing World Markets is seeking a dynamic attorney who will join a growing team of finance professionals with a strong social mission. The incumbent will work with DWM's senior attorney in structuring, negotiating, documenting and closing cross-border debt and equity transactions relating to microfinance and other socially positive investments in developing countries. In addition, the incumbent will assist in addressing legal and regulatory matters applicable to investment advisers, including the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and U.S. securities laws.

Responsibilities as assistant legal counsel will include:

- Negotiating and drafting cross-border investment agreements for debt and equity transactions, with a focus on debt transactions
- Reviewing and approving closing documents relating to the firm's transactions
- Working with local counsel in developing countries in order to structure transactions to conform to the requirements of local law
- Researching legal and regulatory questions that arise in specific transactions
- Assisting in compliance with the Investment Advisers Act of 1940
- Researching and reporting on regulatory matters applicable to DWM, including the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and U.S. securities laws

Candidate must possess the following background and skill sets:

- J.D. or equivalent from an accredited institution
- Admitted to practice and in good standing in Connecticut and/or New York
- U.S. citizenship or permanent residency
- Two years of finance practice, with experience in cross-border transactions
- Knowledge of U.S. securities laws and the Investment Advisers Act of 1940
- Ability to conduct business in Spanish and preferably other foreign languages
- Excellent analytical, drafting, negotiation and counseling skills
- Excellent organizational & time management skills
- High motivation and attention to detail
- Ability to learn quickly and work independently as well as being a team player

Developing World Markets is at the forefront of a global effort to create investible solutions to meet social and economic needs of the developing world. DWM structures transactions that open doors to the international capital markets for microfinance institutions and other socially motivated organizations. The DWM team has deep experience in investment banking and emerging markets investing, as well as a passionate interest shared with their clients in the social goals served by their transactions. For more information: <http://www.dwmarkets.com>

Qualified candidates should send a cover letter and resume to

Jackie Ruiz, Jackie@dwmarkets.com